

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

If you are a family experiencing homelessness and you can affirm ALL of the following statements, you are encouraged to complete the following Hope House Family Navigation application:

- I am a parent with dependent children in my custody.
- I am homeless or am imminently going to become homeless.
- I have been a resident of Albemarle County, Fluvanna County, Louisa County, Nelson County or the City of Charlottesville for the past six months.
- I work at least part-time or am enrolled in a post-secondary educational program.
- I possess the required legal documents to work in the United States.
- I, any co-applicant, and any child/ren in my custody, are free from felony criminal convictions for any violence, assault, theft or destruction of property.
- My children will be enrolled in school full time in the residential school district of my address and will attend school as required.

DISQUALIFICATIONS

- Single person.
- No minor children in physical custody
- Not homeless or imminently going to become homeless
- Do not meet residency requirement of six months in area
- Unemployed or unable to become employed (permanently disabled)
- Immigrant who cannot work legally in the United States
- Felony convictions for distribution of controlled substances, child endangerment, domestic or other acts of violence; assault, theft or destruction of property convictions.
- Registered sex offender
- Unable or unwilling to relocate to Hope House properties
- Unwilling to enroll children in residential school district associated with Hope House address. (Some exceptions if children being served through McKinney-Vento)
- Any person involved in a situation of domestic violence with another applicant
- Any person unable or unwilling to actively participate in classes or other activities associated with Hope House program placement